

Sailing in the Sun

Rhythm Check: Feel the quarter rests!

Briskly

Words by Crystal Bowman

1 on ___?

mf Come, go sail - ing with me, it's ex - cit - ing, you'll see.

5 1 on ___?

3 What a feel - ing, so free, when you're sail - ing the sea!

9 3 4

1 2

p Feel the wind blow in your hair while the sun-shine warms the air. f

grow louder

13

mf When you're sail - ing on the o - cean, life's the best it can be!

Find a one-measure slur, a very short slur, and a l-o-n-g slur.

Did you know?

The oldest clock (in Salisbury, England) was made over 600 years ago. It has ticked more than 500 million times!

- Can you keep the clock shop ticking in perfect time?

The Clock Shop

Moderately

3 on ___?

p Come to the clock shop; you'll hear the tick - tock all day long!

1 on ___?
5 on ___?

5

3

Big clocks and small clocks will tick - tock out their clock song.

1
5

9

mf Cuck - oos chirp a - way each hour of the day.

4

2

13

Would you like to hear them all chime twelve o - clock? Come

1

17

p in - to the clock shop; you'll hear them tick - tock all day long!

3

1
5

21

mf Big clocks and small clocks will tick - tock out their clock song.

Where do measures 1-8 return later in the piece? Show your teacher.

